

Quilt-Makers Given Credit By Red Cross

Mrs. Ruth Ruttan, production chairman of Torrance Branch, American National Red Cross urges individuals or women's groups who are interested in participating in the stockpiling of quilts in the event of a disaster, to contact her at her home, telephone Lomita 90-J or telephone the Red Cross office at Torrance 3447.

Honorable mention at this time is made of the following who have completed several quilts. They are: Mrs. Mark Fox, Mrs. Christianson, Mrs. James Ogden, the women's group of the Central Evangelical United Brethren church, the Catholic Daughters of America, the First Methodist Church and Mrs. Anne Collins of the North Torrance group.

"Due to the wide distribution of quilt pieces to various groups, there may be some persons who have done this work and are not mentioned," Mrs. Ruttan said.

"There are urged to contact me in order that the listing may be completed," she added.

Touch Football Season Opens

Touch football started in earnest in the city of Torrance last week. City Director of Athletics Elmer S. Moon, disclosed today. It was kickoff day for the Torrance Recreation-YMCA Flag-Football Leagues. Moon said that these leagues are conducted for the benefit of local youngsters.

He explained that the leagues are divided into two groups: Juniors for thirteen and fourteen-year-old boys and Midgets for boys below 12.

Moon said that the city is divided into three districts: North Torrance, Central Torrance, and WALTERIA.

In Central Torrance the following games were played by the Juniors. On Monday, the Greenstreaks played Halldale; Tuesday Tor-Els played Green No. 2; Wednesday the Gray-Y Lions were matched against the Pueblos.

Midget games include the following: Monday the Green No. 1 will play Halldale; Tuesday Tor-Els play Green No. 2; Wednesday the Gray-Y Lions are matched against the Pueblos.

All games in Central Torrance are played at two fields in Torrance Park at 4 p.m.

Moon announced that in North Torrance three midget teams have been organized. They are the North Torrance Rams, Firebugs, and Mohawks.

He said that WALTERIA is in the process of fielding three midget and junior teams.

Adult School Has Shorthand and Typing Classes

To meet a constant demand for typists and stenographers in defense and non-defense industries, the free classes of the Torrance Adult School are open four nights each week from Monday through Thursday from 6:15 to 9:15.

The typing classes are held on Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights while the shorthand classes are held on Tuesday night. Both beginning and advanced students are handled in each of these groups.

All adults, regardless of residence, are invited to join these free classes, and should go directly to room 205 of Torrance High School to register and discuss their problems with the instructor.

Young Adults Hold Picnic

The Young Adult Class of the First Methodist Church, with their families met recently in the patio of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Ransom, 1746 Calamar for the monthly social meeting.

A picnic supper was served featuring grilled hamburgers.

After the business meeting presided over by the Class President, Mr. Ransom, group singing and other music was enjoyed by those present.

The next regular social and business meeting will be held October 27th at the Church with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. King as hosts.

Lomita Elementary

The Lomita Elementary P. T. A. will hold a waste paper and fat drive today with Mrs. Harold Jack, president, in charge of the drive.

The regular meeting of the Lomita Elementary P. T. A. was held on Thursday, October 11th. The speaker was Donald Creaton, teacher of the 6th grade, and just recently returned from Japan as an exchange teacher. Mr. Creaton gave a very interesting talk on the condition in the Japanese schools and other items of much interest.

Refreshments were served by the 5th grade mothers after the business meeting.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Amy Elvira Malmberg, age 58 of 1103 Elm street, died at the Torrance Memorial Hospital October 19th.

Funeral services were held at the Stone and Myers Mortuary on Tuesday, October 23rd with Rev. C. M. Northrup of the First Baptist Church officiating. Interment was in the Green Hills Memorial Cemetery.

A traffic accident in Yuba, Calif., on Oct. 17, claimed the lives of two Torrance residents. Victims were Jack John Felton, 33, and his son Jackie Burl, age 5, both of 1720 Cabrillo avenue. The two were killed in a head-on collision with a truck. The remains were flown to Torrance by Stone and Myers in a chartered plane.

All kinds of livestock and poultry on Utah ranches, farms and ranges are on the decrease. The Bureau of Agricultural Economics says the trend is for fewer farm animals in the state.

Double services were held, and the bodies were interred in Rosevelt Cemetery last Saturday.

Mrs. Catherine Sarah Stanley, age 50, of 2431 Andrew avenue died at her home October 19th. Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church with Rev. C. M. Northrup and Rev. Robert Coburn officiating. Services were directed by Stone and Myers Morticians. Interment was in Green Hills Cemetery.

Moose Lodge Holds Dinner Saturday Eve.

In excess of five hundred people, civic and religious dignitaries and members of lodges in the Bay area, are expected to attend the "National Moose Day" dinner. It is honoring the graduates of Mooseheart high school, and is scheduled by the Torrance Lodge Loyal Order of Moose for this Saturday, at 7 p.m. at the hall, 1744 Carson St. George Powell, governor, announced today.

James West, regional director of the Moose, 30 Moosheart graduates and the ministers of Torrance will be honored guests of the Torrance lodge at this major Moose function. Dinners will be served, according to Dan Hutchins, a member of the preparations committee, from 6:30 p.m. until all have been served.

A film depicting life at Mooseheart, Ill., "the Child city," will be shown immediately following the dinner.

DON'T ABUSE YOUR CAR

It's a shame to let your car stand out nights when it is so easy to own a garage. The winter rains will soon be here so let us build you a garage. A garage or any other home improvement can be financed for 10% down and the balance in 36 easy monthly payments. The saving the depreciation on your car if left standing out nights, will pay for the garage. Let us give you an estimate.

NOT AN OFF BRAND!
NOT AN IMITATION!
BUT A GENUINE
Sealy
Mattress or Box Spring

$ 29.88 *

HERE'S WHY

When a world-famous manufacturer such as Sealy finds themselves glutted with odds and ends, there's only one answer—Slash prices to Cost and Less, and then turn over these to a favored dealer for his customers.

And this year we're proud that we're selected to offer these unheard of values to the people of this South-Bay area.

Remember—these are NOT seconds; are NOT imperfect, NOT soiled. Covers are discontinued patterns and in a very few cases sets are mis-matched; but each and every mattress and box spring is a BRAND NEW, factory-fresh, perfect, famous SEALY. Each and every item bears a TRIPLE guarantee! By Sealy, by ourselves and by Good House-keeping Institute.
